Chapter 1 - Organisation of the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations

Article 1

1.1. The African Football Confederation - CAF- shall organise every other year a competition called the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations.

1.2. CAF reserves the right to add to this denomination the name of a sponsor partner.

Article 2

The U-17 Africa Cup of Nations is open to the national representative teams of the associations affiliated to CAF, each Association being entitled to include one team.

Article 3

The U-17 Africa Cup of Nations is a qualifying tournament for the final phase of the FIFA U-17 World Cup.

Article 4

The U-17 Africa Cup of Nations shall consist of two phases:

3.1. A qualifying phase.

3.2. A final tournament.

Chapter 2 - Organising Committee

Article 5

The Organising Committee of the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations will be in charge of the elaboration of the regulations governing the competition and the organisation of the competition. It is responsible for:

5.1. Qualifying Phase;

5.1.1. Organising the drawing of lots;

5.1.2. Organising the schedule of the competition that includes:

- The match number,
- The names of the countries which shall meet,
- The venue, the date and kick off time of the match,
- The name of the country delegating the referees or the names of the appointed referees,
- The name of the match commissioner, and any other official appointed by CAF,
- the week-end (Friday-Saturday-Sunday) set for each match.

5.1.3. Settling financial disputes in case the associations fail to come to an agreement in accordance with the present regulations.

5.2. Qualifying and final phases:

6th October City, Egypt.

Tel.: 202 3824 7272/ Fax : 202 3824 7274

- 5.2.1. Ensuring that sanctions imposed by any CAF body are applied;
- 5.2.2. Replacing, in conformity with the present regulations, the associations declaring their withdrawal;
- 5.2.3. Taking decisions on all claims. These decisions shall be based on written reports of the referee, the assistant referees and/or the commissioner, and any other official appointed by CAF;
- 5.2.4. Identifying cases of force majeure;
- 5.2.5. Appointing commissioners;
- 5.2.6. Homologating the match's results. In the absence of protests or claims, matches are automatically homologated 10 days after the match in the qualification phase and 48 hours after the match in the final phase. All homologation decisions are binding and final;
- 5.2.7. In emergency cases, the Organising Committee may take decisions by mail or by fax or email.

5.3. Final Phase:

- 5.3.1. Ensuring, with the collaboration of the organising association, the preparatory work of the Final Tournament.
- 5.3.2. Proceeding to the drawing of lots,
- 5.3.3. Setting, after consulting the organising associations, of the dates, the venues and the time of the kick-off of matches.
- 5.3.4. Taking all necessary decisions for the smooth running of the competition in accordance with provisions of the present regulations.
- 5.3.5 Appointing Sub-Committees having the rights and prerogatives of the Organising Committee.

Chapter 3 - Trophy and Medals

Article 6

6.1. A trophy called The U-17 Africa Cup of Nations, property of CAF, shall be given to the winner of each edition.

6.2. The trophy shall be returned to the General Secretariat of CAF two months before the opening of the final phase of the following edition.

6.3. The team that wins the Cup three times shall receive an original copy of the trophy.

6.4. The winner of each edition will receive a replica whose dimensions are equal to the original trophy ones

6.5 The winning team is engaged to take, on its own responsibility all the appropriate measures to ensure the security of the trophy throughout all the time it is in their possession.

Article 7

CAF shall grant thirty (30) gold medals to the winner and thirty (30) silver medals to the finalist.

CAF shall give grant thirty (30) bronze medals to the team ranked third and thirty (30) diplomas to the team ranked fourth in the Final Tournament.

Article 8

A medal will be granted to each referee, referee assistant, fourth official, commissioner and coordinator appointed for the third place matches as well as the final match.

Chapter 4 - Fair-play

Article 9

A Fair-Play trophy shall be awarded to the team that will have shown the best fair-play spirit during the final phase of the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations, in conformity with the CAF Fair-play regulations.

Chapter 5 - Other Prizes and Rewards

Article 10

The granting of any other trophies, prizes and/or awards requires the agreement of CAF Executive Committee. Any physical or moral person who wishes to present a prize or an award to one or several players and /or to teams, on the occasion of the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations must formulate a request to the General Secretariat of CAF, at the latest three months before the competition.

Chapter 6 - Engagements

Article 11

11.1 The national associations wishing to participate in the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations should formulate their request to the General Secretariat of CAF before the 31st of December of the year preceding the qualifying phase of the competition.

11.2 The engagement application should be accompanied by the entry fee of five hundred (500) US dollars and a specific -U-17 Africa Cup of Nations - application form provided by CAF.

11.3 The national association organising the final phase is automatically admitted.

11.4 CAF defines the age criteria of each competition.

Chapter 7 - Qualifying Phase

Article 12

The organisation, schedule and order of the qualifying phase matches and the number of qualifiers for the next phase are decided by the organising committee taking into account, as much as possible, the sporting, economic and geographical conditions, as well as the number of countries involved in the competition.

Article 13

13.1. The matches organised by direct knockout system, are played home and away according to the schedule set by the organisation committee. The team which shall have a higher aggregate number of goals in the two matches shall be qualified for the next round of the competition.

CONFEDERATION AFRICAINE DE FOOTBALL

3 Abdel Khalek Tharwat Street, El Hay El Motamayez, P.O. Box 23

6th October City, Egypt.

Tel.: 202 3824 7272/ Fax : 202 3824 7274

If at the end of the regular time of the second match, the two teams have scored the same number of goals during the two matches, the team which will have scored the greatest number of away goals shall be qualified for the following round of the competition.

If the number of away goals is the same or if the results of the two matches are nil, the winner shall be determined by the taking of kicks from the penalty mark carried out by each team in accordance with the recommendations of the International Board. The team which will score the greatest number of goals shall be qualified for the next round of the competition.

Chapter 8 - Organisation of the matches

Article 14

14.1. The matches are exclusively played in the order established by the Organising Committee. The dates set by the Committee are final and cannot be changed except in case of force majeure recognized as such by the organising committee.

14.2. The host association is entitled to play its match in the capital of its own country or in another city. In this latter case, the transportation expenses (round trip) of the visiting team from the capital to the city designated for the match will be borne by the host association.

14.3. By agreement between the two concerned federations and CAF, the two matches (home and away) may be played in the same country.

14.4. The matches must be played in daylight or under floodlight.

14.5. The matches must be played on natural turf or artificial turf, in case artificial turf is used for the matches of the competition between representative teams, this turf for artificial turf should be in conformity with the specifications of the FIFA regulations.

14.6. In case the host association organises the match on artificial turf, the visiting team shall have the right to two training sessions on the field in question, one of which at least at the time fixed for kick-off.

14.7. The pitch with natural turf where the match is to be played must be put at the disposal of the visiting team for a minimum of one training session and this, at the time fixed for kick-off one day before the match.

14.8. The host team shall put at the disposal of the visiting team a training field all along their sojourn and at their convenience.

14.9. The matches shall be played according to the laws decided by the International Football Association Board and promulgated by FIFA.

14.10. Unless stated otherwise, the venue and the day of the match will be determined by the host federation that shall inform the General Secretariat of CAF and the opposing team thirty (30) days before the first match. The kick-off time will be fixed at least twenty (20) days before the match. Failure to any of these obligations shall entail a fine of two thousand (2000) US dollars.

14.11. If thirty (30) days before the dates set by CAF, the host association does not determine the venue and the day of the match, the Organising committee will determine them automatically.

14.12. The associations to which the visiting team belongs must inform the Organising Association and CAF of the arrival date of its team, to the capital of the host country, fourteen (14) days before the date of the match at the latest. Defaulting associations shall pay a fine of one thousand five hundred (1.500) US Dollars.

14.13. If the capital stadium is suspended or unavailable and the national association is compelled to play its match on another city stadium the conditions para. 14.14 should be respected.

14.14 If the distance between the capital and the city where the match is to take place is more than 200 km, the host association must provide transportation for the visiting delegation by air (round trip). The trip should be made on the day before the match at the latest and at a reasonable time of the day, except for late arrival of the visiting team. In case this is not possible, the match will be played at the capital except in case of agreement between the two teams.

If there is an international airport in the city where the match will be held or near that city by less than 200 kms; and if the visiting team wishes to land directly at this airport; the host association must facilitate all entry formalities.

14.15. In case of a clash of the dates set by CAF with the regional, sub-regional and national competitions, priority will be given to the competitions of CAF.

14.16. The matches cannot start neither before 2 p.m nor after 10 p.m, unless approval is granted exceptionally by the Organizing Committee.

14.17. If the referee is forced to stop the match before the end of the regular time due to darkness, and if a delay of the kick off time is behind it, the team of the host Association will lose the match and will be eliminated from the competition.

14.18. If the match is interrupted due to darkness before the end of the regular time and if the visiting team is behind it except in cases of force majeure, the latter shall be considered as a loser and shall be eliminated from the competition.

14.19. If the referee is forced to stop the match before the end of the regular time because of pitch invasion or aggression against the visiting team, the host team shall be considered as a loser and shall be eliminated from the competition, without prejudice to the sanctions provided for in the regulations.

6th October City, Egypt.

Tel.: 202 3824 7272/ Fax : 202 3824 7274

14.20. If a match is interrupted after kick off due to force majeure, the following principles are to be applied:

14.20.1 The match should resume starting from the minute at which it was interrupted, instead of being replayed entirely and with the same score;

14.20.2 The match will resume with the same players on the field and with the same substitutes which were available when the match was interrupted;

14.20.3 No additional substitutes will be added to the list of players summoned;

14.20.4 Teams are only allowed the number of substitutions that they were entitled to when the match was interrupted;

14.20.5 Players sent off before the match was interrupted cannot be replaced;

14.20.6 Any sanctions imposed before the match was interrupted remain in force for the rest the match;

14.20.7 The time, date and kick-off location will be decided by the match commissioner.

14.20.8 The match can eventually be continued in another stadium in the same city.

14.21. If a team refuses to take part in the rescheduled game, he will be sanctioned according to with the present regulations.

14.22. The additional sojourn expenses of the visiting team and the match officials, in relation to accommodation within the hosting country as well as domestic transport, shall be borne by the host federation. The additional expenses of the visiting team in relation to flight tickets and transit fees shall be borne by the visiting team.

14.23. For nocturnal matches, if the match is interrupted because of darkness following a power cut, the referee shall stop definitively the game after waiting for forty-five (45) minutes. The power cut cannot be considered as a case of force majeure unless, it was at this moment a second leg match of the competition played according to the direct knockout system and that the score on the whole two matches is not in favour of the visiting team. In this case, the match is to be replayed twenty-four (24) hours later. If the score of the two legs is in favour of the visiting team, the host team will be declared a loser.

14.24. The national associations hosting the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations are required to conclude a civil liability insurance, a copy of this policy is to be sent to CAF three months before the start of the competition.

14.25. CAF officials should ensure that these instructions are carried out by the organising country.

Chapter 9 - Match on Neutral Ground

Article 15

The preliminary matches of U-17 Africa Cup of Nations may take place on a neutral ground, after an agreement is reached between the two concerned national associations and the Organising Committee.

Article 16

In the case of a match played on a neutral ground, only one match may be played, if necessary, with penalty kicks to define the winner.

Chapter 10 - Countries in a state of War / Matches affected by internal situations

Article 17

In case of troubles, epidemics, wars, force majeure or internal instability in a country that may affect security and/or security conditions while holding a match, the Organising Committee can take the following measures:

17.1 During home and away matches:

17.1.1. If the case involves a single country, its federation shall organize the match in another on another country territory, or a single match on the field of the opposing team will be played. Where appropriate, the organizing committee will determine the match venue.

17.1.2. If this case includes the two countries, only one match will be played on a neutral ground. In case of a draw match at the end of the regular time, the winner shall be immediately determined by taking of kicks from the penalty mark.

Chapter 11 - Balls

Article 18

The host Federation shall provide for each match at least fourteen (14) legal balls approved by FIFA which shall be put at the referees' disposal. They must have one of the following three imprints: the FIFA official logo "FIFA APPROVED" the official logo "FIFA INSPECTED" or "INTERNATIONAL MATCH BOARD STANDARD."

If a game is stopped due to absence of balls, the referee shall wait for fifteen minutes. After this deadline, the match shall be stopped. The host team shall lose the match by penalty (3-0) unless if the score in favour of the visiting team is superior.

Article 19

For the matches on neutral ground, each team must provide at least seven (07) balls that shall be put at the referees' disposal. The team not having brought balls will be sanctioned.

Article 20

Any disputes about on financial matters shall be dealt with by the Organising Committee.

Chapter 12 - The Match Commissioner

Article 21

21.1. The organising Committee appoints a match commissioner for every game. He is the official representative of CAF and he must attend the match. In this capacity, he is entitled to a place in the first row of the official tribune.

21.2. Upon the receipt of notification, the match commissioner shall confirm acceptance of his appointment to CAF. In case of impediment, he must inform the latter by fax or email, within 48 hours following his appointment, in order to allow the Secretariat to provide a replacement. In cases of force majeure at the very last moment, the commissioner must send his apologies apology both to the Secretariat and the Host association by email or fax. The appointed commissioner can be replaced only by the decision of CAF.

CONFEDERATION AFRICAINE DE FOOTBALL

3 Abdel Khalek Tharwat Street, El Hay El Motamayez, P.O. Box 23

6th October City, Egypt.

Tel.: 202 3824 7272/ Fax : 202 3824 7274

21.3. In case the presentation of the teams to the authorities is approved by CAF, the match commissioner will have to accompany the guest of honour and to present him the referees and as well as the captains of the two teams.

21.4. On the eve before the match or in the morning of the day of the match, the commissioner must convene the officials of both teams with the referees appointed for the match for a technical meeting, and chair it, in order to explain the main points of the regulations of the competition.

He must ensure the fulfilment of all conditions necessary for the regularity of the match especially which concerns the control service, the stay of the referees and the visiting team, the proper qualification of the referees on the FIFA list and the control of the players' passports. There will not be any record or minute for this meeting. Any eventual dispute shall be recorded by the match commissioner in his report.

21.5. In case of absence of the match commissioner, the central referee appointed to officiate the match will preside over the technical meeting stipulated for in the above-mentioned para. (21.4).

21.6. In the absence of the General Coordinator, the match commissioner will go to the dressing rooms to attend the preliminary match formalities for the eligibility of players. He might, if he deems it necessary, go back to the dressing rooms during the half-time or after the match.

21.7. In the absence of referees appointed by CAF, the match commissioner shall have the match played in conformity to the provisions of the present regulations.

21.8. The responsibility of verifying the field's dimensions, of ascertaining the regularity and the practicability of the field as well as ascertaining the adequacy of the electric light for the nocturnal matches is exclusively that of the referee.

21.9. Only the referee and his assistants are in charge of the procedure dealing with the substitution of players during the match.

21.10. The match commissioner may, if he deems it necessary for security of the referees or the visiting team, decide not to have the match started until his instructions are carried out. But once the match is started, it is exclusively the prerogative of the referee to decide of the suspension or the total stop of the match for any of the reasons stipulated in Law 5 of the laws of the game.

21.11. If the match commissioner receives before the start of the game, a protest from a team on an article of the regulation, he must try to reconcile the points of view within the framework of the regulation. If he does not succeed, he shall register the protest. In all cases, the match must be played according to the provision of regulations and according to the interpretation given by the match commissioner.

21.12 The match commissioner shall observe the match in all its aspects and especially the referees' performance (in the absence of the referees' assessor), the evaluation of fair play, the behaviour of the teams and the spectators, the eventual incidents, the organisation of security in the stadium and around and the organisation of health services. As soon as the match ends, he shall send by fax and/ or email to the Secretariat of CAF, the result of the game and the preliminary report in which the eventual protest lodged by a team must be signalled. He will send to the General Secretariat of CAF maximum in the forty-eight (48) hours following the match, by express mail, or by using the software Competitions Management System of CAF (CMS), the detailed report on the specific form provided by CAF. In case of match commissioner absence, this duty will be incumbent upon the appointed referee.

21.13. The host association must inform the appointed match commissioner of the date, venue and kick-off time of the match twenty (20) days prior to the match date. It must organise the commissioner's trip, his stay and must put at his disposal a car from the day of his arrival until his departure. It must send him an endorsable full fare economy class flight ticket and ensure that he receives his flight ticket at least fourteen (14) days before the match. If in this delay, the commissioner does not receive his airplane ticket, he will be authorized to pay his own ticket and to travel to the venue of the match. In this case, the host association apart from his sojourn expenses or fees must refund his round trip flight fees as well as his indemnities on the day of his arrival according to the applied regulations. It will also pay a fine according to the provisions of the present regulations, without prejudice to other sanctions that the organising Committee could inflict.

21.14 . The absence of the commissioner cannot constitute an obstacle to the playing of the match at the scheduled date and time. In such a case, the appointed commissioner cannot be replaced, unless a decision is taken by CAF in this respect and only the referee's report will bear witness.

21.15 . If the absence of the match commissioner is due to a failure of the host association, no protest raised by the latter shall be taken into consideration. In this case, only the referee's report will bear witness.

Chapter 13 - Referees and Assistant Referees

Article 22

The Referees and assistant referees appointed for U-17 Africa Cup of Nations must be on the current annual FIFA list of international referees and assistant referees. The procedure of their appointment by CAF Referees' Committee will be as follows:

22.1. The Referees Committee appointed by name one referee, two assistant referees and one reserve referee (all neutral) to officiate the matches of the U-17 Africa Cup of Nations.

22.2 The reserve referee shall be a referee from FIFA International referees list. If needed, the reserve referee may be an international neutral assistant referee or an international assistant referee from the host country but appointed by the Referees Committee.

22.3. If the appointed referee is absent or becomes unfit before or during a match, and his replacement is required he shall be replaced by the neutral reserve referee or the neutral reserve assistant referee.

CONFEDERATION AFRICAINE DE FOOTBALL

3 Abdel Khalek Tharwat Street, El Hay El Motamayez, P.O. Box 23

6th October City, Egypt.

Tel.: 202 3824 7272/ Fax : 202 3824 7274

22.4. If the reserve referee is from the host country, the referee shall be replaced by the first neutral assistant referee and the 2nd neutral assistant referee will become the 1st assistant referee and the reserve referee from the host country will become 2nd assistant referee. A reserve referee from the host association registered on its list of international referees will then be appointed for the match.

22.5. The host Federation shall inform the appointed match referees and assistant referees of the venue, date and kick-off time of the match, twenty (20) days before the match. It shall organise their trip, their stay and shall put a car at their disposal from the day of their arrival until the day of their departure. It will make sure that their endorsable economy class flight tickets reach them fourteen (14) days at least before the match. Referees and assistant referees are obliged to use the PTAs put at their disposal by the organising country. They are in no case authorised to purchase their own flight tickets and ask for reimbursement from the host association.

22.6 Any Association that sends flight tickets shall inform the association to which the referees belong.

22.7 If the flight tickets for the referees are sent on time by the host country and the referees fail to travel, a fine will be imposed upon the national association to which the referees belong.

22.8 In case of absence of the appointed referees, the visiting team must extend its stay in the venue of the match up to 72 hours as of the scheduled time for the kick off. In such a case the host association has to provide through a neighbouring neutral association, the arrival of international referees registered on the current annual FIFA list, to allow the match to take place within this allotted time.

22.9 If within this extension, both the referees initially appointed and those of the neighbouring association fail to arrive at the venue of the match and if the visiting team is accompanied by an international referee registered on the current annual FIFA list, the latter shall officiate with the assistance of two assistant referees and of a fourth referee registered on the current annual FIFA list designated by the host association.

22.10 If the visiting team consents, the match may be played at the time initially scheduled or before the end of the 72 hours with the officiating of local international referees and assistant referees registered on the current annual FIFA list, appointed by the host association.

22.11 In case of absence of the appointed referees and match commissioner, and if the visiting is accompanied by an international referee registered on the current annual FIFA list, the latter shall officiate the match at the fixed date, with the assistance of two local assistant referees and a 4th local referee registered on the FIFA list of the current year of international referees and the list of international assistant referees and appointed by the host association.

22.12. If the visiting team is not accompanied by an international referee, the provisions of the above mentioned article 22.8 shall be applied and CAF should be informed.

CONFEDERATION AFRICAINE DE FOOTBALL

3 Abdel Khalek Tharwat Street, El Hay El Motamayez, P.O. Box 23

6th October City, Egypt.

Tel.: 202 3824 7272/ Fax : 202 3824 7274

22.13 Any international referee accompanying a visiting team shall refrain from penetrating in the field of play or the players' dressing rooms before, during or after the game. He should imperatively follow the game from the VIP tribune and abstain from intervening at any time moment in the running of the game. In default, he will be severely sanctioned.

22.14 The new expenses incurred in cases of stay extension of the visiting team at the venue of the match following the absence or late arrival of the referees, shall be borne by the host association.

22.15 If after the playing of the match in the conditions referred to in the above article 22.8, it is established that the absence of the referees appointed by CAF was the fault of the host association, and that the competition is played on the knock-out basis, the host team shall be declared loser by penalty and shall be eliminated from the competition.

22.16 A national association which substitutes from its own initiative the referees or assistant referees designated by CAF, except for the cases mentioned in the above article 22-8 shall be considered as a loser by penalty and shall be eliminated from the competition if the latter is played on the knock-out basis.

22.17 At the end of the match the referee will send to the General Secretariat of CAF maximum in the forty-eight (48) hours following the match, by express mail, or by using the software Competitions Management system of CAF (CMS), the detailed report on the specific form provided by CAF.

Chapter 14 - Other match officials

Article 23

CAF may appoint an inspector on referees for the evaluation of the refereeing of a game. The inspector is a match official and must be received and treated as such. He shall sojourn with the appointed referees and attend the match in the official tribune where a seat in the first row shall be reserved for him. At the end of the match he will send to the General Secretariat of CAF maximum within the forty-eight (48) hours following the match, by express mail, or by using the software Competitions Management system of CAF (CMS), the detailed report on the specific form provided by CAF.

Article 24

CAF may appoint a security officer to oversee security in the stadium under the authority of the match commissioner. The National associations should provide him with any needed support and assistance and urge the stadium's officials responsible of security to cooperate with him. At the end of the match he will send to the General Secretariat of CAF maximum within the forty-eight (48) hours following the match, by express mail, or by using the software Competitions Management system of CAF (CMS), the detailed report on the specific form provided by CAF.

Article 25
